BRITAIN WILL FIGHT WARNING

America Electrified By New Demarche: Hitler Speech Obsolete

WASHINGTON, TO-DAY.

THE INTIMATION GIVEN BY LONDON THAT BRITAIN, FRANCE AND THE SOVIET WILL FIGHT IF CZECHO-SLOVAKIA IS INVADED, HAS ECLIPSED HITLER'S SPEECH, AND HAS ELECTRIFIED HIGH QUARTERS.

Radio commentators immediately suggested that the above intimation rendered the Hitler speech obsolete.

The speech itself caused deepening anxiety. Senator Borah, commenting, said: "Let them settle it among themselves," and Senator King declared: "It's an hysterical outbreak." — Reuter.

Berlin, To-day.
Hitler's speech was somewhat more conciliatory than expected, even to the extent of leaving the door slightly ajar for quick negotiation.

However, the impression prevailing in foreign political circles here is that Germany will march into Sudeten territory on October 1.

STICKS TO TERMS

In Paris, official quarters comment that the Fuehrer has not burned his boats, but they nevertheless recognise that Hitler sticks to the exact terms of the latest memorandum, with its time limit.

Some well-informed sources remark that after removing the word "war" and the rhetorical matter, the speech does not exclude all hope of a peaceful settlement.

Others emphasise its intransigence and place little confidence in its assurances to Britain and France.—Reuter.

GERMANY CANNOT UNDERSTAND FIRMNESS

Berlin, To-day.
The German newspapers contend that Hitler's memorandum is merely carrying into effect, and does not go beyond, the Anglo-French plan.

One paper asks if the historic meeting between Hitler and Mr. Chamberlain is to be lost in wrangles in the British Parliament and French Councils.

Another asserts that Hitler at the Godesberg meeting adhered to the right of self-determination and support of the Polish and Hungarian demands.

The paper adds that war over evacuation of part of Czechoslovakia would be madness. The paper cannot understand Britain and France showing such firmness against the Polish and Hungarian minority demands.—Reuter.

IF CZECHS DO NOT YIELD REICH WILL BE PROVOKED!

Berlin, To-day.
Confirming the reception of an official declaration from the British Foreign Office that in the event of a German attack on Czechoslovakia, France would be obliged to rush to the aid of Prague and that Great Britain as well as Soviet Russia would stand by the side of France, it is declared in informed circles that an unprovoked attack on Czechoslovakia is not in question.

The cession of the Sudeten German territory was proposed in the British declaration and had also the sanction of the British, French and Czechoslovak Governments. The Reichs Government regards this as a binding promise which, as such, formed the basis for the Godesberg conferences.

If this promise is not fulfilled then there can be no longer the possibility of an unprovoked attack.

The fulfilment of the demands in the German memorandum within the stipulated time is merely the consequence of the former negotiations which are conducted for the purpose of arriving at a peaceful solution of the Sudeten German problem.

SOLEMN WARNING URGED

London, To-day.
Mr. Winston Churchill last night declared that Britain, France and Russia should send a solemn warning to Germany stating that in the present situation, invasion of Czechoslovakia by German troops would be taken by them as an act of war.—Reuter.

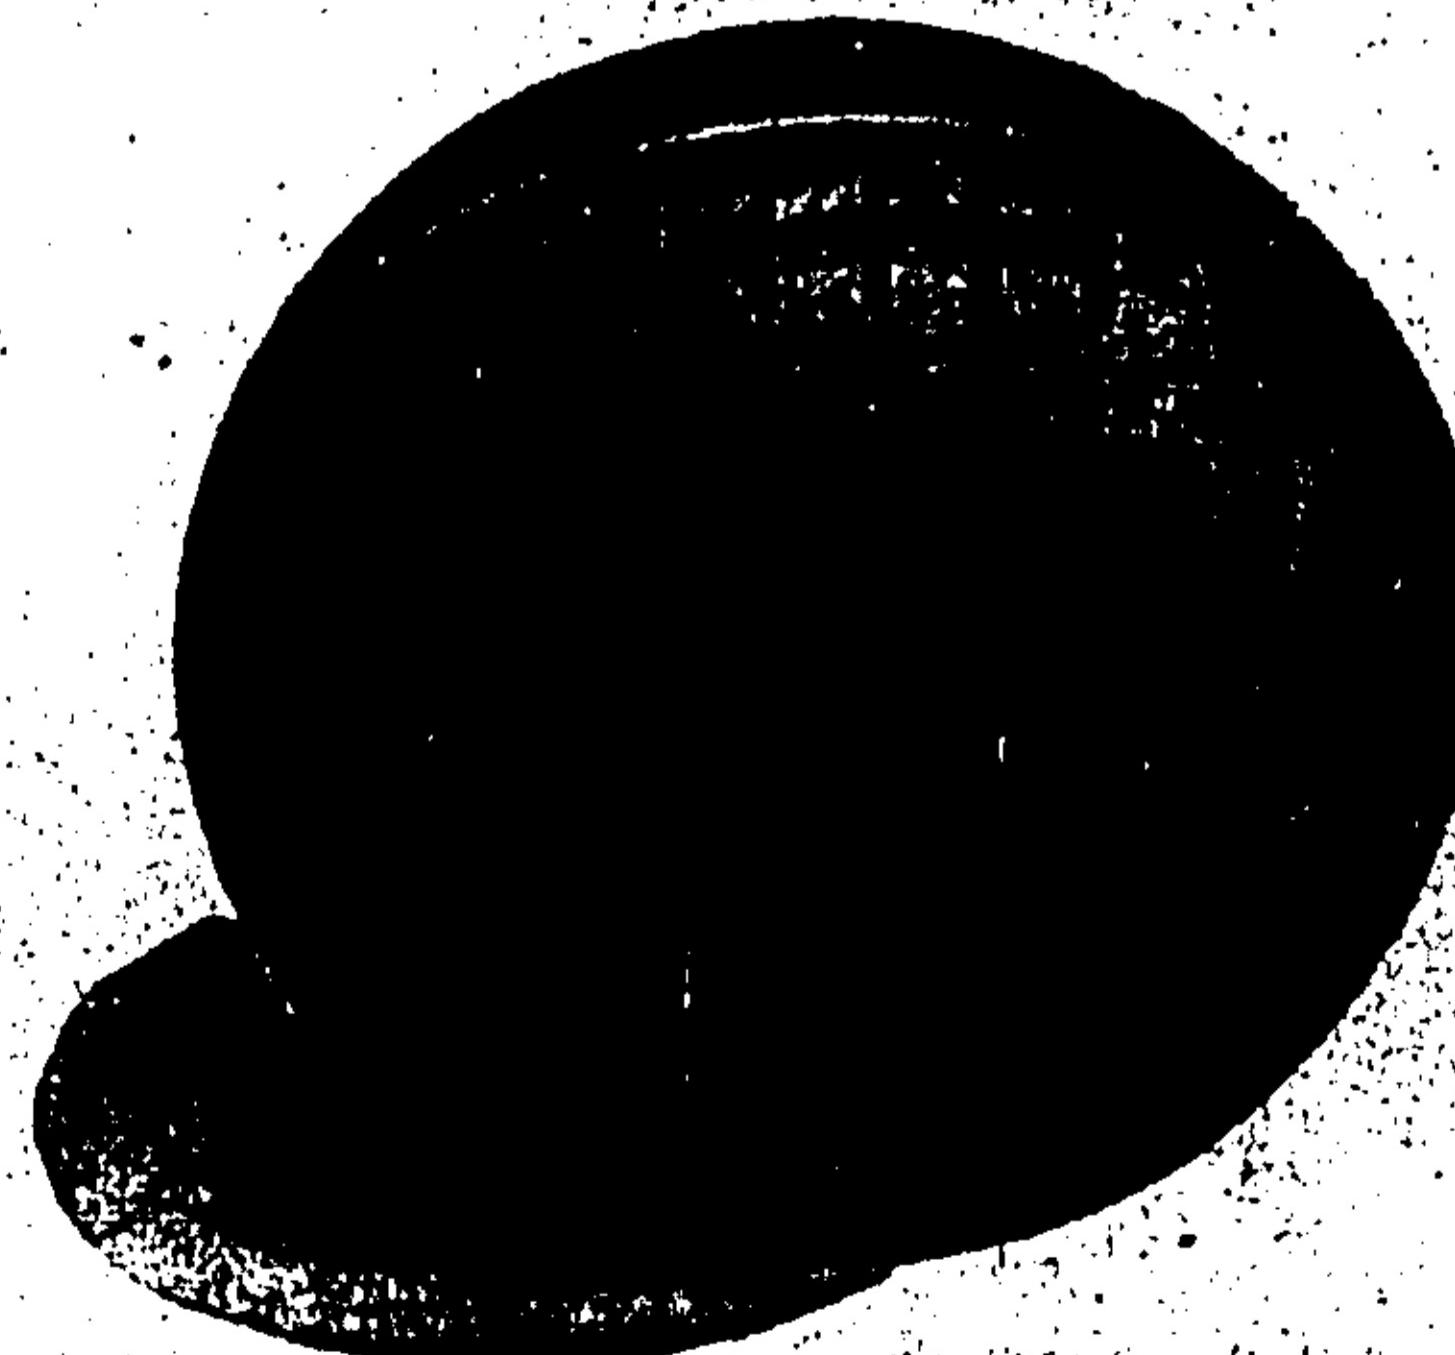

Failure to fulfil the promise given to Germany would create the situation clearly indicated by the Fuehrer in his speech yesterday evening.—Trans-Ocean.

U.S. CRITICISM RESENTED

Berlin, To-day.
The semi-official "Deutsche Diplomatische Korrespondenz" published shortly before President Roosevelt's telegram to Chancellor Hitler reached Berlin, a strong FRANCISKA GAAL selected a huge, loose fitting hood for beach wear. It not only protects her hair from the sun but it also covers the back of her neck and across her shoulders where constant sunning toughens the skin.

YOUR HAIR GOES TO THE BEACH TOO!

Somehow when bathing days come along the majority of women feel they don't have to care for their hair. "In the fall I'll get a few good treatments," they promise themselves, without realising that possibly the damage done during the summer cannot be corrected by a few special treatments!

It is good to remember that your hair goes to the beach too. Right along with you. It can't take the sun and the salt water any better than your skin. It requires the same care and protection.

ESSENTIAL CARE

During the summer brush your hair daily. If it is too oily or too dry use a tonic just as you would during the colder months. A shampoo once every two weeks or once every ten days is necessary. Between shampoos be sure to rinse out the salt water if you get it wet bathing. Salt water on the hair acts like minute magnifying crystal, attracting the sun and having great bleaching power. If you allow your hair to dry with it on, while the sun beats down, you probably will fade or bleach it beyond reconditioning!

There are several summer rules which every woman and girl should follow regarding hair care. Here they are:

Always keep your hair covered while you are under intense sun.

If hair is dry, keep a little tonic or olive oil massaged into the scalp. Never expose tinted hair to the sun's rays.

If you expose hair to the sun at all it should be brushed out fluffy and free—not set as you normally wear it. So that the sun can penetrate it all and reach the entire surface of your scalp.

Have your hair set with water only, or if you require a lotion, choose a quick drying one.

Try water-proofing your hair before taking a dip by spraying it with one of those lotions. That helps to keep it dry and it also prevents rapid fading if the sun reaches it.

Rather than too frequent soap shampoos cleanse it occasionally with a light tonic.

And summer is a grand time to let your back hair line grow in. Don't clip it or let your hair-dresser clip it. You will want a brushed up hair-do this fall and how can you have it if your back hair line looks like a whisk broom?

If you can get away with it put off getting a new permanent wave until October. Let those mis-treated dried hair ends grow out and be cut off!

MALTONIC

If you feel "run-down" during the summer heat, try "A Maltonic a day". You will like its pleasant, satisfying taste and quickly benefit from its healthful qualities.

What The Stars Foretell

By MARY BLAKE

Fickleness will be this day's most unfortunate trait, affecting the personal affairs of those who indulge in very unfavourably. Erratic behaviour resulting from it will cause the loss of popularity. In business the verbal understanding of this day are likely to be to-morrow's misunderstandings, so it will be good judgment to have every agreement confirmed by letter. Any lack of graciousness in greeting people you meet either socially or in a business may cause you great embarrassment at some future time. Under no condition go to extremes, this day, for by pursuing a sensible line of procedure this is apt to be a successful day for you. Married and engaged couples, as well as those ready to enter the matrimonial lists, are likely to find that two heads are much better than one, when it comes to making any important decision.

If a woman and September 27 is your birthday, you ought to possess a great amount of personal magnetism. You should be a convincing talker a shrewd buyer and a capable housewife. Your memory is likely to be one of your best assets, and might be instrumental in your making much money. Your nerves may be very susceptible to the tones of people's voices, rasping ones setting them on edge. You will have to learn to control them, if you would save yourself from much needless irritation. As an educator, writer, musician or saleslady your opportunities to attain a position of importance, in all likelihood, will be numerous. Through matrimony many of your fondest hopes may be realised.

GERMANY REMEMBERS ALSACE WALK-IN

Berlin, To-day.

The press points out that the German people is prepared to follow the Fuehrer whatever may be his command.

All decisions of the Fuehrer, writes the "12 Uhr Blatt" are taken in accordance with the people.

Germany wants to have nothing more to do with that sort of politics which is pursued in secret behind closed doors. The Fuehrer speaks to the people and the people speaks to the Fuehrer, about its destiny.

None is more careful in weighing up the pros and cons of the case than the man who possesses the fullest confidence of the German people.

The Fuehrer only has to take his decision and millions of Germans will respond: Fuehrer, let us know your command. We shall obey.

ACCUSATION DENIED

The "Voelkischer Beobachter" repudiates the charge made in a large section of the foreign press that Germany has adopted an attitude designed to disrupt the negotiations aiming at a solution of the Sudeten German problem.

"It needs to be stated quite explicitly" the central organ of the National Socialist Party writes, "that the Berchtesgaden plan had already been accepted by the Czech Government and formed the basis of the Godesberg negotiations hence Germany did not put forward any new demands at Godesberg. Actually the Godesberg negotiations devolved exclusively on the procedure to be adopted to put the Berchtesgaden plan into execution. To this end Germany has made certain definite proposals which were embodied in its memorandum.

ALSACE MODEL

"One does not go far wrong in supposing that these proposals are closely modelled on the procedure adopted for the evacuation of Alsace-Lorraine by the German troops in November 1918 and for the entry of French forces, that is to say on the methods which at that time found the approval of the French nation and its Allies. There can hardly therefore be any further discussion to-day concerning the conditions of evacuation." —Trans-Ocean.

PENINSULA HOTEL "BOY" THREATENED

Pun Hong, 22, and Ho Kai-wah, 18, this morning appeared before Mr. E. Hinsworth at Kowloon charged with demanding money with menaces from a 16-year-old mail despatch boy, Kwan Ping-hung, of the Peninsula Hotel.

Det-Sergt J. R. Sykes, who prosecuted, said complainant was met by defendants in Nathan Road near the Royal Observatory at 7.20 p.m. on Friday.

A third defendant, a boy charged separately in the Juvenile Court, asked him for three dollars. He offered $1.20, the only money he had, but first defendant suggested that they would search him and said that if he did not give them $3 they would "show something" to him.

In passing sentenced, Mr. Hinsworth said he was satisfied first defendant instigated the others.

First defendant was sentenced to six months' hard labour and second was given one month.

PRINTERS SEEK SHORTER HOURS

Social legislation is being sought whereby workmen engaged in the printing trade in the Colony, numbering more than 5,000, will have their hours of work reduced.

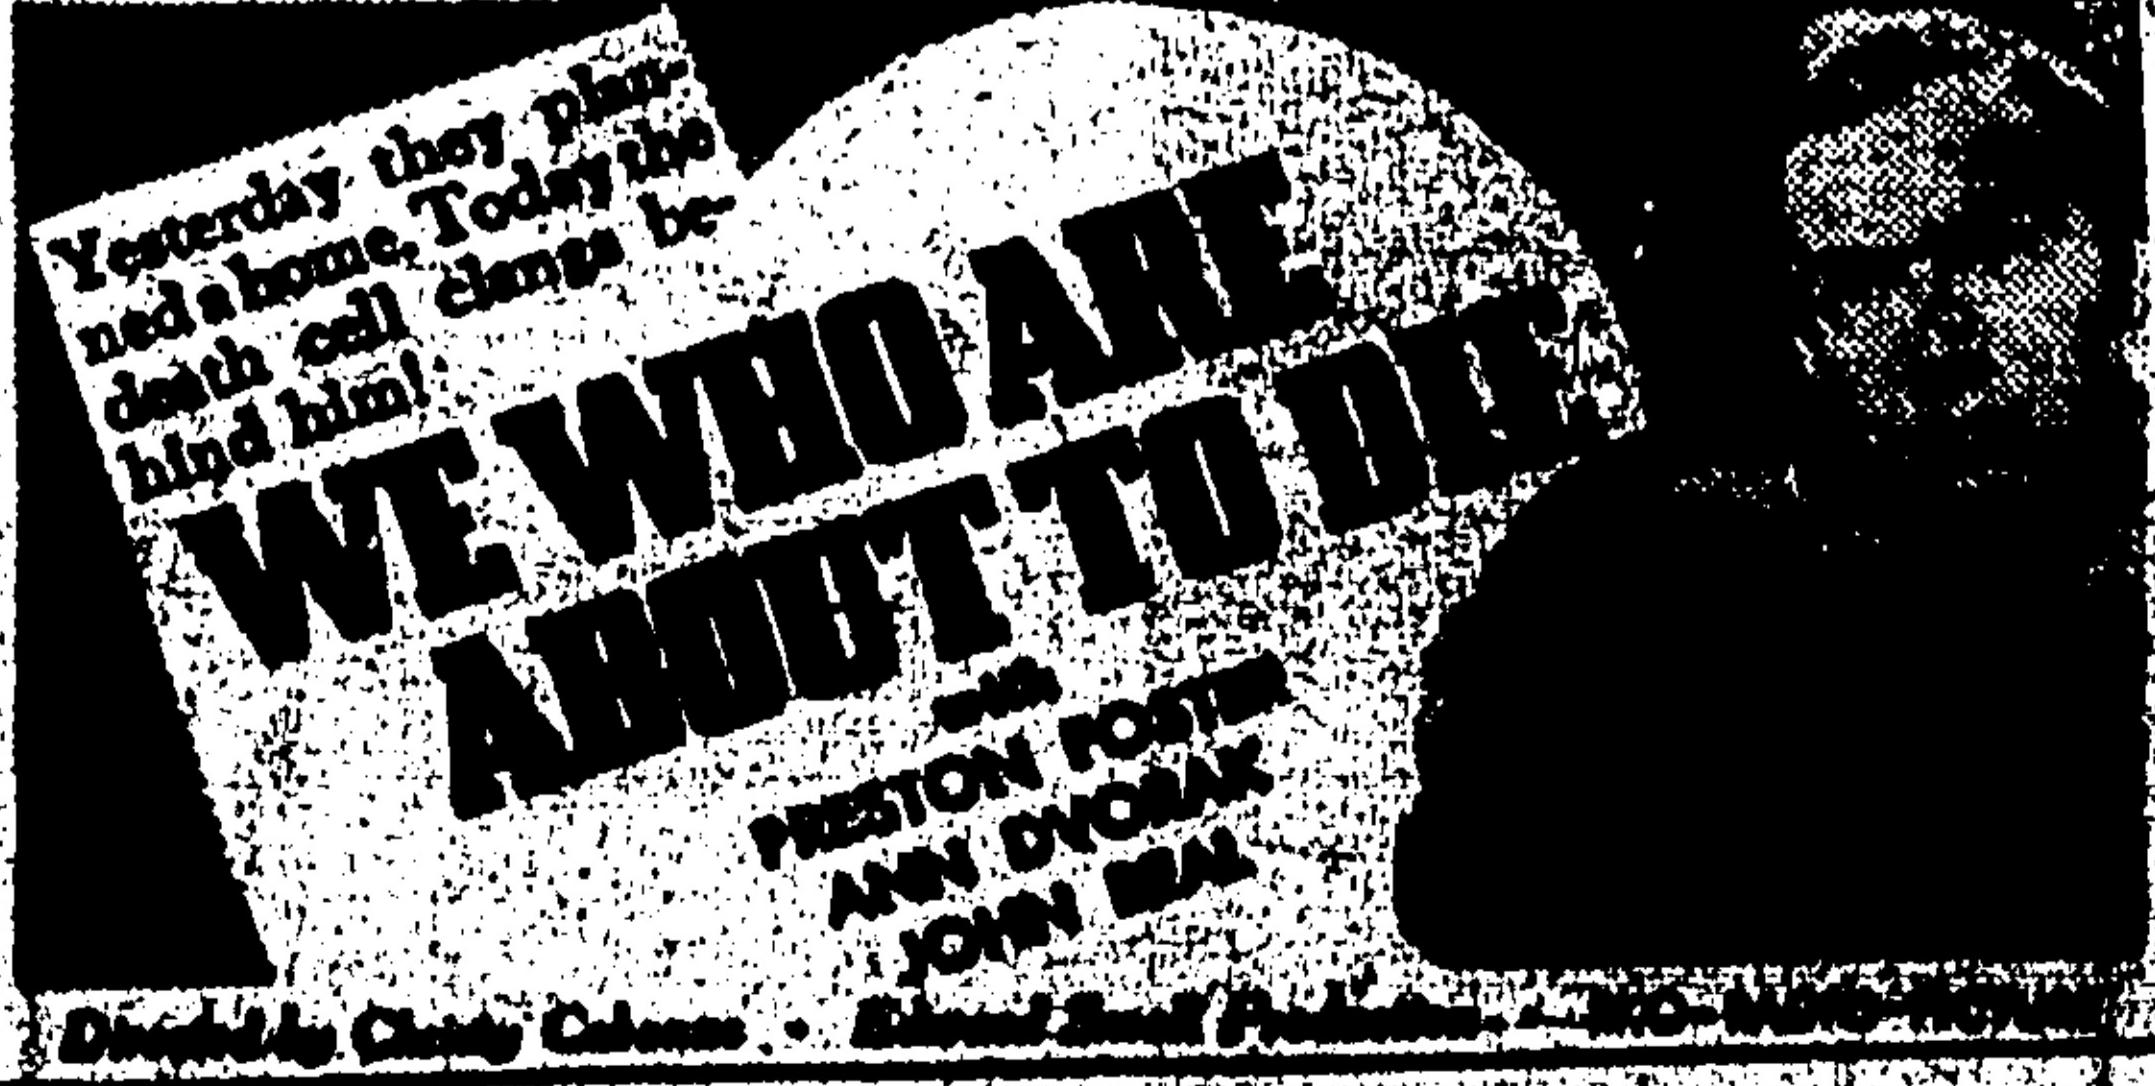

A petition has been addressed by the Hong Kong Printers' Guild, through its legal adviser, Mr. Peter H. Sin, to the Secretary for Chinese Affairs, asking for Government's help in improving working conditions in the profession. The Guild represents about 3,000 hands in various branches of the trade.

Hours of work at present, according to a survey, are between 12 and 16. The Guild considers that such long periods, for men whose work invariably demands the utmost concentration and expense of energy, gravely impairs the health of workers, and stresses the fact that 80 per cent. of deaths in the profession are directly or indirectly due to tuberculosis.

A reduction of hours should not affect efficiency, according to the Guild, which believes that efficiency, conversely, would be enhanced if workers have sufficient rest and recreation and enjoy normal health.

WHY NOT YOU!

IF GERMANY ATTACKS FRANCE WILL IMMEDIATELY GO TO CZECH ASSISTANCE

London, To-day.

It is stated in official quarters in London that if, in spite of all Mr. Chamberlain's efforts, a German attack is made on Czechoslovakia, the immediate result must be that France is bound to go to her assistance.

Britain and Russia will certainly stand by France, and yet it is still not too late to stop "this great tragedy."

BELGIAN TROOPS RECALLED

Brussels, To-day.

The Belgian Cabinet yesterday decided to recall from leave men of the Ardennes Chasseurs, the corps of mechanised cavalry, and certain classes of fortress troops. — Reuter.

Reuter is reliably informed in London on the basis of official information from Prague, that President Benes has sent a personal letter to President Moscicki of Poland conveying willingness to terminate the Czech-Polish dispute even at the cost of revision of the Czech frontier on the basis of a mutual agreement.

The viewpoint is expressed that it is still possible to settle the Czechoslovak question peacefully by negotiation.

POINT CONCEDED

It is pointed out that the German claim to transfer of the Sudeten areas has been conceded by the French, British and Czechoslovak Governments, and it is added that it is still not too late to stop the great tragedy of a European war and for the peoples of all nations to insist on a settlement by free negotiation.— Reuter.

ON SAME DAY

London, To-day.

In connection with the conversations between British and French statesmen, the diplomatic correspondent of the "Evening Standard" states that he is in a position to affirm that the French Government has definitely decided to declare war on Germany on the same day on which German troops cross the Czechoslovak frontier. — Trans-Ocean.

KING CANCELS GLASGOW JOURNEY AT REQUEST OF PRIME MINISTER

London, To-day.

It was officially announced from Buckingham Palace last night that "at the request of the Prime Minister, the King has cancelled his journey to Glasgow to-night.

"The Queen, accompanied by the Princesses, will carry out the programme as arranged, and will both visit the Exhibition and launch the liner "Queen Elizabeth" at Clydebank. In the evening the Queen will return to Edinburgh for a short period."

The King held a Privy Council meeting at Buckingham Palace at 10 o'clock last night, attended by Lord Maugham (Lord Chancellor), Lord Halifax (Foreign Secretary), Sir John Simon (Chancellor of the Exchequer), and Sir Samuel Hoare (Home Secretary). — Reuter.

HITLER'S SPEECH UNCOMPROMISING

"Peace Or War In Hands Of President Benes"

Either He Gives
Or We Fetch:
Surrender By Oct. 1.

BERLIN, TO-DAY.

"PRESIDENT BENES HAS PEACE OR WAR IN HIS HANDS. EITHER HE GIVES THE SUDETENS LIBERTY OR WE FETCH THIS LIBERTY. PRESIDENT BENES WILL HAVE TO SURRENDER THE PREPONDERANT GERMAN REGION ON OCTOBER 1."

Thus declared Herr Hitler in his "historic proclamation" last night in the course of which he declared that when the Czech problem had been disposed of, he had no further territorial claims in Europe.

Patriotic enthusiasm in the streets, and serious faces, were apparent as the hour approached for delivery of Herr Hitler's speech on the crisis.

Endless columns of Brown Shirts paraded the streets singing, and lined the roads leading to the Sports Palast, where the Fuehrer was to talk, while the pavements were crowded with the anxious faces of people assembled to see the Fuehrer pass.

Half of Hitler's 30,000 audience were women. The slogan round the hall was "Germans in Czechoslovakia are neither defenceless nor deserted. People had better note that."

Five hundred Sudetens were present, many in white shirts, black ties, black breeches and red arm-bands.

Hitler was greeted with deafening cheers when he arrived on the platform.

GOEBBELS BURBLES

Dr. Joseph Goebbels, the Propaganda Minister, opened the demonstration, saying:

"The People's demonstration of September 26 is opened, my leader. In the historic hour which holds Europe breathless, you speak to Germany and to the whole world. No threat, no pressure, no matter from where, can cause you to deviate from your unconditional demands."

Hitler at the outset of his speech referred to the anshluss with Austria, and recalled that on February 22 he expressed for the first time a fundamental and unconditional demand.

"One statesman (referring to Schuschnigg) failed to understand sufficiently. He had been removed. I kept my promise."

"A second time I spoke at Nuremberg again. To-day the world must know that it is no longer a man who speaks to you but a whole nation."

"It is really not Czechoslovakia; its name is really Benes."

WORLD PHILOSOPHY

"Germany's foreign policy is one of world philosophy. We do not want to suppress other nations. We want to be happy according to our viewpoint."

Hitler recalled several suggestions made to demonstrate Germany's love of peace.

The first was the demand for equality. "We were prepared to renounce all armaments if other nations did the same. Germany's offer to restrict her army to 200,000 men was declined, just as was the offer to renounce heavy artillery, bombing planes, even all planes, and also the abolition of gas warfare and heavy tanks."

HUGE REARMAMENT

"Then I ordered the German army to be made as strong as possible. Now I can confess that we have carried out rearmament such as the world has never seen."

"If they do not want war with our armies, then the German people still have your weapons."

"I have spent thousands of millions on rearmament in the past five years."

"Goering has carried out my orders to create an air force which will protect Germany."

"We have the best air defence and the best tank defence in the world."

The Fuehrer claimed that he had carried on a practical peace policy, most difficult problem of which was the German-Polish relationship.

DEMOCRACIES THE WAR INCITERS

"It is true there is no democracy in Poland. The democracies are full of peace phrases and are the bloodiest war inciters."

Hitler expressed the conviction that the German-Polish Agreement would provide lasting peace. Poland would always want access to the sea.

The understanding reached is worth more than "all the idle chatter" in the League of Nations Palace."

—MAN FOR MAN—

WOMAN FOR WOMAN

Berlin, To-day. There is one thing that the world must know, said Herr Hitler, and that is the fact that during my four and a half years of war service I have never been accused of cowardice. I shall lead my people as their first soldier and behind me will march the nation, but a nation that is different from the nation of 1918.

The German people of to-day are immune to the poison of democratic phrases. At this hour, the entire German nation stands behind me and will regard my will as its will! Just as I regard its future as my destiny.

And so, my German people, I request you to follow me, man for man and woman for woman. During this hour we shall all join in a mutual sacred resolve.

It shall be stronger than any privation and danger and because it is stronger it will finally overcome privation and danger.

We are resolved! Let Benes decide! — Trans-Ocean.

IT WON'T DO

"I offered England my hand, and I renounced building more than a given number of ships in order to give England a feeling of security and peace.

"One thing is important. It won't do for one nation to say: 'I will build no more ships' while the other says 'I will soon be making another war if it suits me.'

"We hope that among the English people those who want peace will gain the upper hand."

FRANCE

Referring to France, Hitler said: "We are two great nations, who both want to live and work, and both will do that best if they co-operate."

He referred to the Italo-German relationship as a strong union of hearts, and recalled that he had removed the Italo-German problem (presumably a reference to the Tyrol).

He then referred to Austria and Czechoslovakia as the only two remaining problems.

He said that the 10,000,000 Germans outside the Reich frontiers equalled a quarter of the population of France.

WILL NOT RENOUNCE

Referring to Czechoslovakia, the Fuehrer said: "It is the last territorial claim I have to make in Europe, but one which I will not renounce."

"If France did not abandon her claim for 10,000,000 in Alsace-Lorraine for forty years, we have before God and the world the right to claim these 10,000,000 Germans."

"Czechoslovakia began with a lie when Central Europe was atomised after the War. Benes was the father of this lie when he said at Versailles that a Czechoslovak nation existed."

"Benes promised a Swiss cantonal system, and then a war of extermination began, and 600,000 Germans had to quit Czechoslovakia to escape starvation."

"SHAME"

"Benes was determined to exterminate the German element (prolonged shouts of 'Shame').

"Bolshevism used this state as her channel into Central Europe."

Hitler denounced President Benes for forcing non-Czech minorities in the army to fight against their own people.

"Directly we occupied Austria, I said that no Czech shall serve in the German army."

"If the Reich imprisons a man who agitates against his country from the pulpit, great excitement prevails in Great Britain, but no notice is taken when hundreds of thousands of minorities are ruthlessly suppressed."

MY GREAT FRIEND

"One man who understands us is my great friend, Benito Mussolini (cries of 'Duce'). We shall not forget what he has done, and if the hour should arrive, I shall stand before the German people and summon it to take the same attitude, and then Italy and Germany will defend each other like one bloc."

Returning to the subject of Czechoslovakia, Hitler again fiercely denounced President Benes.

He said that in the May elections in Sudetenland, President Benes had occupied the territory with military. (Shouts of "Bloody dog").

Referring to England's intervention, Hitler said he had explained to Mr. Chamberlain the only possible solution.

"THIS MADMAN"

He assured him he would not continue to watch how "this madman" (i.e., President Benes) handled 3,500,000 people. He left no doubt that Germany's patience had come to an end.

England and France had advised Czechoslovakia to secede German territory, instead of which President Benes drove out the Germans.

"But Benes sat in Prague and said: 'England and France will back me.'"

Hitler declared that his memorandum containing his final demand only contained what President Benes had agreed to.

In short, that was that people who were German and want to go to Germany, shall come to Germany now.

BRITISH LEGION

He proceeded to outline the demands already cabled.

Referring to an international control commission to supervise voting in the plebiscite areas, Hitler said he had stated to-day that he was ready to invite the British Legion, which had declared itself willing to preserve order to come in.

"President Benes would have to submit his demands to the British Legion."

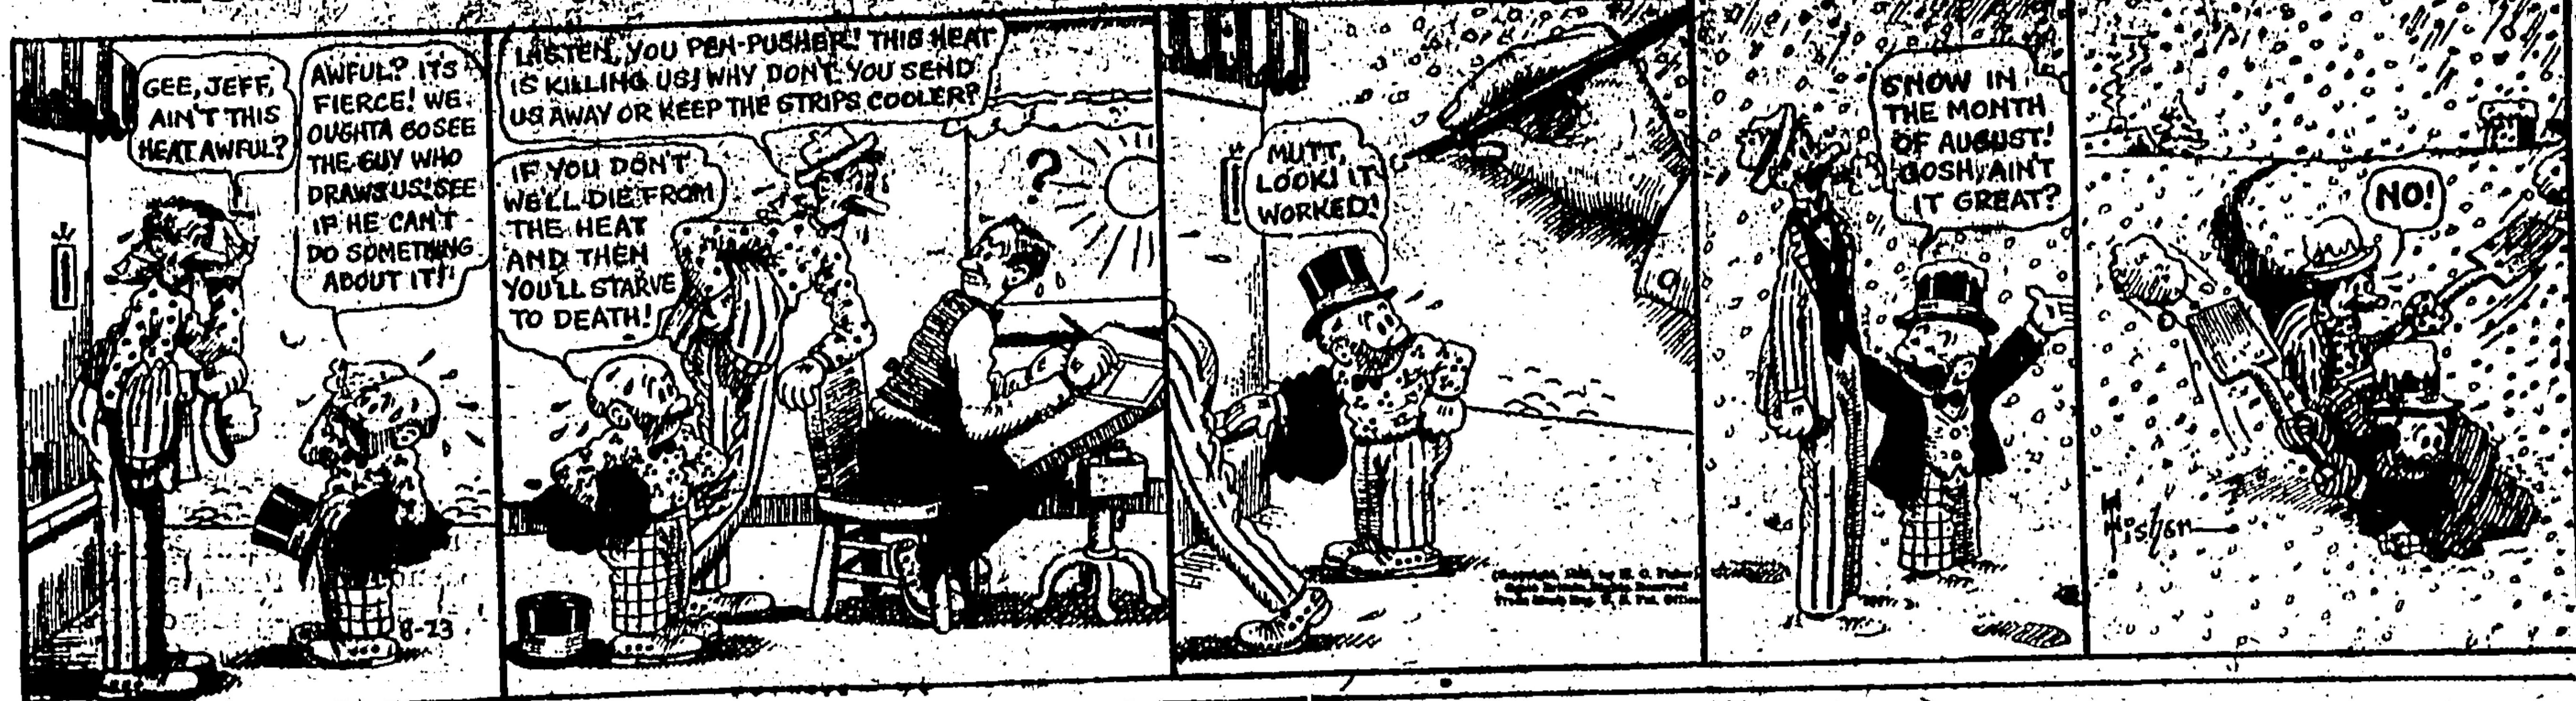

Hitler expressed his thanks to Mr. Chamberlain of the British Legion. He told him that Germany wants peace and assured him, "and I repeat it here, that after the Czech problem is settled, I have no more territorial claims in Europe."

"If the Czechs solve the problem of their other minorities decently, then the Czech nation does not interest me any more, and as far as I am concerned, I will guarantee it."

"President Benes has peace or war in his hands. Either he gives the Sudetens liberty or we fetch this liberty." — Reuters.

THE DAILY SHORT STORY

GENERAL STORE

THATCHER'S general and variety generator had been installed in the meat department. The store is located on an arm of Lake Sunset, that protrudes into the woods toward the base of Mount Baldy. The store was better equipped, more sanitary, more attractive than his. He was prepared to stop at Thatcher's for supplies. Folks came in and looked around and exclaimed, and Ezra swelled up with pride. And then a curious thing began happening. Trade dropped off. It dropped off alarmingly. Ezra couldn't understand it. True, now that everything had a place and was labeled and attractively arranged, he and his clerks were having difficulty in locating desired articles. It wasn't like the old days, when the establishment was a cluttered heap and you could put your finger on any article because you remembered where you'd placed it. But he and his clerks would get used to the new way soon enough and give just as prompt service. No, it was something more than that.

In 1930 Charlie Thatcher died and his son, Ezra, took over the business. That same summer a real estate development company bought some land near The Landing, and began selling lots to summer people. Three years later quite a colony was occupying the railroad.

Ezra's concern grew when in August another chain store opened up across the street. It grew still more when he noticed this new chain store was being well patronized. He didn't know what to make of it. He became desperate, thinking of his note at the newly erected cottages along the lake bank and all. He wished now he'd left things the way they were.

Then one day a reporter from a city newspaper dropped in, looked around, asked Ezra a few questions, shrugged indifferently and went out. Ezra started after him, the words the reporter had spoken ringing in his ears:

"Thought you had a real old-fashioned general store here. I was going to write about it. But this! Humph!"

The next year when the summer folks arrived, they got another surprise. Thatcher's General store had reverted back to its old self. The worn old sign was above the door. Paint had been scraped off the outside. The inside had been painted a dingy brown. Windows were dirty. The refrigerator was missing, and everything was a cluttered heap.

Folks looked around and beamed. Standing behind the counter Ezra heard such words as "the real thing," "Atmosphere," "Charm." He shrugged his shoulders and shook his head. He didn't understand city folks. Even when the new chain-store had to move out because Thatcher's was getting all the business, he didn't understand. But what difference did it make, anyhow?

EURASIA FULL SERVICE RESUMING

Hankow, Today.

Starting to-day, the Eurasia Aviation Corporation is resuming the regular air mail and passenger service between Hong Kong and Hankow.

Planes will leave here every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, but the time of departure has not yet been announced.—Reuters.

CHINESE CAPTURE POINT EAST OF LOSHAN

Fighting In Shansi During Heavy Rains

Hankow Confident Tienchiachen Is Holding

Hankow, To-day.

The Chinese forces yesterday morning captured Siaoloshan, five li east of Loshan, where the Chinese and Japanese are now opposing each other, says a Chinese military communique.

In heavy rain, the Japanese forces at Yuanchu, in south Shansi on the north bank of the Yellow River, on Sunday launched an attack on the Chinese positions, but were repulsed.

Although the Japanese forces are now closing in from three directions on Tienchiacheng, on the north bank of the Yangtze below Hankow, the Chinese garrison is stubbornly holding the strategic fort, says a phone message from there yesterday morning.

Communication between Tienchiacheng and Hankow is now difficult to maintain because of very heavy Japanese artillery bombardments.

It is held therefore that although no further telephone communication has been received here from the fort since yesterday morning, there is no cause for undue alarm.

PUSHING ON

After capturing Szewanshan, north east of Tienchiacheng, the Chinese forces continued to push on, the Chinese military stated yesterday.

After occupying Huangtupo, the Chinese troops reached the hills in the vicinity of Maunshan, and are now threatening the rear of the Japanese forces now attacking Tienchiacheng fort.—Reuter.

IMPORTANT SUCCESSES

Hankow, To-day.

Military advices received here reveal that important gains have been scored by Chinese troops on both Yangtze banks in simultaneous counter-attacks.

A Japanese detachment of 2,000 advancing on the Juichang-Wuming highway was practically wiped out in the vales between the hills of Peitze and Masaishan early yesterday morning. Over 1,700 Japanese soldiers were slain.

The Japanese right and left wings which attempted to relieve their doomed comrades were intercepted.

In the Tienchiachen sector, the Chinese smashed the Japanese offensive and recaptured Ssuwang-shan, Tiehshih-tun, Hwangtupo and Manshan.

Japanese troop concentrations around Kwangtui were bombed by Chinese planes.

Whilst admitting the loss of Fuchikou opposite Tienchiachen, military messages state that the Chinese position at Yangtse has improved after a fierce counter-offensive, but fierce fighting is still raging in the suburban districts.

Meanwhile, the Chinese are exerting great pressure in the Loshan sector.—Central News.

JAP. PRESSURE ON SINYANG RELIEVED

Hankow, To-day.

The Japanese forces pushing westward towards the Peiping-Hankow Railway at Sinyang are now turning southward in an effort to penetrate the Chinese line in the Tapieh mountain range. Chinese military despatches from the Honan front report.

These troops are joining the Japanese column from Shangchen, and it is believed the combined forces will try to cross the Hupeh border and reach Machen and Sungpu, north-east of Hankow.

Sungpu has been subjected to intensive bombing during the past few days.

Thus the threat to cut the Peiping-Hankow line north of Hankow has been eased considerably following stiffening of the Chinese defence line east of Sinyang.

Chinese press reports of the reoccupation of Loshan cannot be confirmed.

FUCHIKOU'S FALL

On the south Yangtze front the Japanese yesterday afternoon attacked the Chinese positions in the Tapishan hills, west of Fuchikou, which fell on the afternoon of Saturday. Since then, twenty Japanese motorboats have appeared on the Yangtze near Fuchikou.—Reuter.

JAPANESE CENSORSHIP OF REUTER

Shanghai, To-day.

A further example of Japanese censors' suppression of incoming Reuter telegrams was revealed today when Reuter's in Shanghai received from Hong Kong, copies of recent telegrams despatched.

A telegram relating to the Japanese bombing of the St. Mary's Hospital at Wuchow, and despatched from Hong Kong at midnight on September 19, has not yet been delivered.—Reuter.

Whitehall and Downing Street are packed day and night by expectant crowds, eager to glimpse the comings and goings of British and French Cabinet Ministers. This picture, taken outside "No. 10" on September 13, shows the crowd which cheered Mr. Chamberlain after Herr Hitler's speech. (Copy right: By Air Mail)

NINE DIRECT HITS ON CANTON WATERWORKS

Canton, To-day.

Canton will be out of water for, it is estimated, three months, as a result of an air raid this morning.

Nine direct hits were scored on the old Waterworks at Saichuen, and the extent of the damage is such that little hope remains of supplying the city with water.

Shameen, the foreign concession, is not affected, as it has its own waterworks.

The new waterworks, also at Saichuen, it will be recalled, was heavily bombed several months ago when it had been almost completed.

Our Own Correspondent Reuter says that the old waterworks were built at a cost of between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000.

TRENCHES IN LONDON PARKS AGAINST RAIDS

London, To-day.

Trenches are being dug in London parks to provide shelters in possible air raids, and an appeal is being made for all fit available men to help in the work.

Mr. Herbert Morrison, leader of the London County Council, has issued an appeal to the people of London to come forward in their thousands to help in air raid precautions.

Provision of exchanges has been announced by the Food Defence Department, and the details throughout the country have been decided upon. The prices of bacon, ham, butter, cheese, lard, cooking fats and margarine will remain at the present level for fourteen days.—Reuter.

ALLEGED SALE OF CHILDREN

At the Central Magistracy, before Mr. R. Edwards this morning, a 56-year-old Chinese woman was remanded for 48 hours, when charged with taking part in a transaction transferring the control of two minors, Kwong Tai-tai, aged 9, at Tong Kok village, and Li Chau-kam, aged 8, at Lung Kong Tsui village.

She was also charged with unlawful possession of two minors. Defendant was allowed $1,000 bail. Inspector E. J. Ellis of the S.C.A. was in charge of the case.

TIME DESPERATELY SHORT

There was little hope for the preservation of peace in Europe yesterday. There is less to-day. Mr. Chamberlain's only ground for declaring that all was not lost at Godesberg seems to have rested in the remote possibility that the Czechoslovakian Government would, without persuasion, accept Herr Hitler's new terms. Any such idea has quickly been dispelled and a very plain issue has to be faced. The terms submitted to the Czech Government on Herr Hitler's behalf were such as might be tendered by a victor nation to the vanquished. Neither Britain nor France could associate themselves with pressure or inducement to Prague to surrender. Prague's rejection came as a matter of course and it is the consequences arising from this decision that now have to be faced, leaving us to contemplate the fact that it would be folly or worse to pretend otherwise than that little less than a miracle can keep us out of war. Such a gift to the world might have been given by Herr Hitler last night, since it is in his hands that the fate of Europe rests. Unfortunately, there was nothing in his utterance to give ground for other than the gravest misgiving, nothing to intimate that the burden of responsibility means any more to him than the power it gives to the wielder of a big stick against those whose only desire is peace on honourable terms.

No one can say with absolute certainty what the next few days will bring forth, but we leave the inexorable power of events to which Mr. Chamberlain referred in his famous warning to Germany earlier this year are all too plainly exerting a powerful influence. Arrival in London of General Gamelin, Chief of the French General Staff, could have only one meaning, that the Anglo-French conference had changed from a discussion of ways to peace to an examination of the military situation and of the military precautions necessary to be taken against an emergency. Rumania has declared herself on the side of the Czechs. The Little Entente agreement holds. The Czechs have met Poland half way in an effort to win her from her half-commitment to Germany. The forces of Europe, in short, are ranging themselves in readiness for the war now believed to be imminent. On the side of peace, there is little to show. We would like to be able to think that Mr. Chamberlain's final demarche had had an effect. But we can see none. We can see no sign of that forthright declaration which from Britain, Russia and France jointly might deter Herr Hitler. The United States makes an appeal, when a clear word of warning from her might well have an effective result. Time is getting desperately short.

Juleps and Jeopardy

An astonishing statement, in view of the results of modern research, is made in the course of an article on the drink problem in a women's magazine. "The individual who need have no fear of drinking," states the author, "is he who always drink sociably and moderately." The soundness of such an opinion may well be questioned. Recently the "Chicago Tribune"—which never has been classed as a "dry" newspaper—devoted a column of news and nearly half a page of pictures to proving that very moderate drinking works incalculable harm to motorists. "It's the drink drivers don't feel that harm," ran the headline.

"The fellow who says who can drive just as well after a couple cocktails or highballs doesn't know what he's talking about," began the news story, which went on to describe how two commercial artists, with many years driving experience, underwent voluntary tests. Normally, the tests proved, they were drivers of better than average ability. Each then drank two mint juleps. Repeating their tests, one man was found to rate only 69 per cent, and the other 61 per cent, of their former accuracy in steering and judging speeds and distances. Drink, the pictures showed, causes drivers to accelerate speed, but slows their reactions, including footwork; dulls responses, and adversely affects judgment, accuracy, and ability to co-ordinate. The effort to drive home these lessons to motorists is commendable, especially in view of the fact that a test has shown that 75 per cent of motorists stopped between midnight and 2 A.M. have been drinking.

Obviously, whether sociable or unscrupulous moderate or moderate, drink must be abandoned by anyone who wishes a steering wheel in safety to control.

BRITAIN'S PARTIAL MOBILISATION

Important Sections Of Territorials Called Up: Air Defence

Following yesterday's Anglo-French meeting, General Gamelin, Chief of Staff of the French Army, lunched with Viscount Gort, Chief of the Imperial General Staff. General Gamelin left for Paris last evening.

Purely as a precautionary measure and in relation only to home defence, the British Government has taken certain air defence measures, including:

Recall of R.A.F. personnel on leave,
Calling up of the observers' corps attached to the R.A.F., and
The institution of an air raid warning system.

It is stated that these measures are purely precautionary, and do not include general mobilisation.

The War Office has issued orders calling out officers and men of anti-aircraft units and coast defence units of the Territorial Army.

CHAMBERLAIN MAKES FINAL APPEAL TO HERR HITLER

London, To-day.

In a statement noticeable for its lack of optimism, the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, after expressing appreciation of the references Hitler made in his speech to his (Mr. Chamberlain's) efforts to save peace, says:

"I cannot abandon those efforts, since it seems to me incredible that the peoples of Europe, who do not want war with one another, should be plunged into a bloody struggle over a question on which agreement has already been largely obtained."

"It is evident that the Chancellor has no faith that promises made will be carried out. These promises were made, not to the German Government direct, but to the British and French Governments in the first instance."

MORAL RESPONSIBILITY

"Speaking for the British Government, we regard ourselves as morally responsible for seeing that the promises are carried out fairly and fully, and we are prepared to undertake that they shall be so carried out with all reasonable promptitude, provided that the German Government will agree to settlement of the terms and conditions of transfer by discussion and not by force."

"I trust the Chancellor will not reject this proposal, which is made in the same spirit of friendliness as that in which I was received in Germany, and which, if

The orders relate to men who joined under the Territorial Reserve Forces Act of 1907.

NOT MOBILISATION

It is emphasised that calling up of these men is a precautionary measure "quite distinct from general mobilisation, which includes embodiment of the Territorial Army." — Reuter.

BALLOON BARRAGE SQUADRONS CALLED UP

London, To-day.

The Air Ministry has been instructed to call up the personnel of defensive units of the Auxiliary Air Force, comprising the auxiliary fighter and balloon barrage squadrons.

Bomber units of the Auxiliary Air Force are not being mobilised at present. — Reuter.

FOOD CONTROL

London, To-day.

Precautionary measures of another character were indicated yesterday in the announcement that at the request of the Food Defence Plans Department, the provision exchanges of the country have decided that the prices of bacon, hams, butter, cheese, lard, cooking butter and margarine are to remain at the present level for fourteen days, and in a statement issued after a meeting of the National Federation of Meat Traders assuring the public that a practical scheme of control and rationing is available to be put into immediate operation in case of need. — British Wireless.

London, To-day.
Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor-General of Canada, who is at present on leave in England, had an audience of the King at Buckingham Palace yesterday afternoon. — British Wireless.

It is accepted; will satisfy the German desire for union of the Sudeten Germans with the Reich without shedding blood in any part of Europe." — Reuter.

GERMAN PLAN QUITE UNACCEPTABLE

London, To-day.
Reuter's lobby correspondent understands that Mr. Chamberlain's message to Herr Hitler included a declaration that the German plan is completely unacceptable.

Mr. Chamberlain also appealed to the Fuehrer to prove that he desired a peaceful settlement by agreeing to discuss details of the transfer of Sudeten territory directly with the Czechs. — Reuter.

PREPAREDNESS PRESSURE

Paris, To-day.

Political circles here attach particular importance to the passage in the official communique issued in London after the Anglo-French conversations stressing the full agreement between the two countries.

Opinion prevails here that the presence of General Gamelin in London is proof that France and England reckon with the worst eventualities and are preparing to meet them.

This preparedness is considered to be the best means of pressure which the two Powers can bring to bear in the negotiations for settlement of the Czechoslovak problem.

The view is taken that the greater the emphasis placed on Franco-British solidarity the greater the chances of preventing an outbreak of war, since it is likely that all other Powers would hesitate to resort to extreme measures under these circumstances. — Trans-Ocean.

GERMANY WILL NOT GIVE GUARANTEE

BERLIN, TO-DAY.
THE FACT THAT THE GERMAN MEMORANDUM CONTAINS NO OFFER OF A GUARANTEE TO CZECHO-SLOVAKIA BY GERMANY, HAS BEEN INTERPRETED BY PRAGUE AS PROOF OF GERMANY'S INTENTION NOT TO ABANDON HER HOSTILE ATTITUDE.

Informed quarters here declare that after settlement of the Sudeten German question conformably with the demands contained in the memorandum, the German Government would have no further claims on Czechoslovakia.

Regarding a guarantee by Germany, it is pointed out that such a guarantee is impossible, since it would imply an obligation to march against Hungary and Poland in the event of those countries seeking to enforce their demands for granting of the right of self-determination to the Hungarian and Polish minorities in Czechoslovakia. — Trans-Ocean.

Pres. Roosevelt's Peace Appeal: British Response

London, To-day.

The British Government hails with gratitude the weighty message which President Roosevelt addressed to the British and certain other Governments, states a reply by Mr. Chamberlain to Mr. Roosevelt.

The message adds: "At this critical time it is indeed essential to remember what is at stake and to weigh the issues with all gravity before embarking on a course from which there may be no retreat.

"His Majesty's Government is doing its very utmost to secure a peaceful solution, and they even today are making a further earnest appeal for settlement by negotiation, in which they would be ready to lend their good offices.

"His Majesty's Government respond to the President's appeal in all sincerity and without reserve, and they most earnestly hope that the other Governments to whom it was addressed will do likewise."—Reuter.

SOVIET VIEW

Moscow, To-day.

Soviet quarters welcome President Roosevelt's appeal that the Sudeten German problem should be settled by reason and not by force.

They, however, are not unduly optimistic regarding the possibility of a peaceful solution.

In the Soviet view, the only possible solution is a concerted show of force on the part of interested powers, particularly Britain and France.—Reuter.

PRESSURE

London, To-day.

President Roosevelt's appeal to Chancellor Hitler and President Benes is prominently featured by the papers here and attracts the liveliest interest in political circles, which see in it proof that Mr.

The report that Rumania and Yugoslavia had informed the Hungarian Government that they would support Czechoslovakia on the basis of the Little Entente Treaty, is "quite unfounded," according to well-informed Hungarian quarters, says the semi-official news agency.—Reuter.

ROOSEVELT CALLS CABINET MEETING

Washington, To-day.

President Roosevelt has decided to hold a special Cabinet meeting to-day to consider the European situation.

Reporters were given to understand that the purpose of the Cabinet meeting is to consider the further possible effect of the European situation in the United States, but not to study the possibility of America's stepping into foreign troubles.

DR. DAY'S DEATH

Dublin, To-day.

The death occurred here yesterday of Dr. Day, Protestant Primate of all Ireland, at the age of 64.—Reuter.

Roosevelt is working behind the scenes for a peaceful solution of the Czechoslovak problem.

It is stressed in political circles that the President's appeal so far considerably strengthens the position of England, France and Czechoslovakia in the coming negotiations, as those countries will henceforth be able to rely at least on the moral support of the United States.—Trans-Ocean.

BERLIN BOURSE OPPOSITION WEAKNESS KEPT INFORMED

Berlin, To-day.

A marked weakness was characterised in the share market when the new week's business opened yesterday. Customers showed an extraordinary disinclination to buy so that the stock offered was taken up, when at all, only at declining prices.

The text of the German memorandum was much discussed and made a profound impression. No economic considerations had any effect in the price trend.

The leading shares dropped by 2 to 3%, and popular securities fell as much as 4%.

Later there was a recovery but it was less than what had been lost on the fall.

All other sections of the market were affected similarly.—Trans-Ocean.

London, To-day.

The Opposition leader, Mr. C. R. Attlee, and his deputy, Mr. Arthur Greenwood, were received yesterday afternoon by the Prime Minister, who informed them of the latest developments, including the meeting with the French Ministers.

An emergency meeting of the National Council of Labour was held in the afternoon to consider these developments, and the Labour Party Executive and the Executive of the Parliamentary Labour Party meet to-day to discuss procedure to be adopted in Parliament.

Last night Mr. Attlee was principle speaker at a demonstration at the Empress Stadium, Earls Court, attended by over 10,000.

The Prime Minister also received Mr. Winston Churchill yesterday afternoon, and Mr. Churchill later called at the Foreign Office.—British Wireless.

HITLER AND BRITISH LEGION

London, To-day.

Explanation of Hitler's reference, in his speech last night, to the British Legion, is given by the announcement that—with Mr. Chamberlain's consent, the President of the British Legion, Major-General Sir Frederick Maurice, took certain proposals to Hitler on Sunday.

Sir Frederick offered the services of the Legion during determination of the new frontiers of Czechoslovakia.

He returned by air to London yesterday, and placed Hitler's reply before Mr. Chamberlain.—Reuter.

MR. MORRISON URGES LONDON TO ACTION

London, To-day.
Mr. Herbert Morrison, M.P., leader of the London County Council and Chairman of its A.R.P. sub-committee, yesterday addressed a message on air raid precautions to the people of London, in which he said:

"In this critical hour, when our country with the rest of Europe is facing finely balanced alternatives of peace or war, A.R.P. Preparations are a matter of the greatest urgency and importance to every London citizen."

"There are enormous advantages in early preparation and organisation. I therefore urge all those who have no other task to discharge for public service immediately, to enrol and to see to it that London maintains its reputation for civic order."

WAR LOAN FALLS SEVEN POINTS

London, To-day.
War loan fell by no less than seven points on the London Stock Exchange, from a shade over 99 to 92. Other Government stock fell in sympathy, and there was a general writing down on the whole list.

The pound was quoted at 4.75 to the U.S. dollar.

London, To-day.
Business on the Stock Exchange remained slack and quotations were mainly nominal.

Three and a half per cent. War Loan fell to 92.

On the foreign exchange market sterling was pronouncedly weak.

Among foreign securities, German, Czech and Austrian loans fell heavily.—Trans-Ocean.

CHAMBERLAIN TALKS TO LYONS ON TELEPHONE

Canberra, To-day.
For the first time during the present crisis, the Australian Premier, Mr. J. A. Lyons, and Mr. Chamberlain, had a long wireless telephone talk yesterday.

Ministers are remaining in close touch and some, including Mr. H. V. C. Thorby, Minister for Defence, are remaining in their offices all night to await cables from London.—Reuter.

all over London people in large numbers visited appointed centres of fitting of gas masks and registration of particulars of households with air raid wardens. This emergency procedure has been adopted throughout the greater London area and in many other centres in those cases where the air wardens' survey by method of a house-to-house call had not been completed.

In one London borough, seventeen centres are open and attendance at all centres has been brisk since early morning.

Another precautionary measure of A.R.P. is the digging of trenches in parks and open spaces upon which thousands of labourers are engaged.—British Wireless.

Don't Scratch

Mosquito and Insect Bites!

SHE-KO

Stops The Itching Instantly and Prevents Infection. Everybody knows what insufferable itching a mosquito bite can cause. The natural tendency is to scratch the bitten part. But scratching aggravates the tiny wound, besides which the skin is liable to become poisoned by dirt from the finger-nails.

Instead, apply SHE-KO and the itching will immediately stop. At the same time the medicinal ingredients in this delightfully aromatic ointment rapidly soothe, disinfect and heal. She-Ko is equally effective for the curative treatment of cuts, burns, bruises, abrasions, scalds, pimples, boils, eczema, and skin troubles generally.

One of the famous Dr. Williams Medicine Company products. She-Ko is obtainable from all chemists.

Singles Bowls Final To-Day

B.W. BRADBURY & J.A. DA LUZ CLASH AT KOWLOON B.G.C.

Youth Versus Experience

(By "SKIP")

A large number of lawn bowls fans are expected at the Kowloon Bowling Green Club this afternoon to witness the final of the Open Singles Championship of the Colony between B. W. Bradbury and J. A. da Luz. H. E. the Governor has indicated his intention of being present, if his engagements permit.

The game is timed to commence at 4.15 p.m. and will be umpired by Mr. A. Hyde Lay, President of the H.K.L.B.A. It is neither easy nor necessary to attempt to forecast who will follow in the steps of U. M. Omar, three times winner of the title.

INTERPORT CRICKET SERIES ON OCTOBER 10

Hong Kong To Remain Until October 18

Shanghai, September 21.

All doubts as to the possibility of a cricket Interport between Shanghai and Hong Kong this season were conclusively settled yesterday evening when the S.C.C. received a cable from the Colony indicating that the visitors would arrive here aboard the s.s. Potsdam on Saturday, October 8.

At a Committee Meeting of the Shanghai Cricket Club last night, it was decided that the Interport should commence on Monday, October 10, that day being a holiday, and to continue on succeeding days. Originally it was intended to start the series on Saturday, but the late arrival of the visitors necessitated a short postponement.

Meanwhile, arrangements are proceeding for various friendly matches, as the Southerners will remain in Shanghai until the Potsdam returns to Hong Kong on October 18. Two or three other fixtures, therefore, are under contemplation, but full details of the programme and the local representatives will not be announced for a few days.

It is reasonably certain that the visitors, following the Interport, will meet a Rest of Shanghai side, as well as a representative Recs eleven. The actual Interport match is played to a finish, but it is expected that the visitors will have at least four days at their disposal after the key match of the series has been completed.

LAST VISIT

Hong Kong last visited Shanghai in October, 1936, the local team winning after knocking up the record Interport score of 479 in the first innings. The standard of cricket throughout the series was high, and it is to be hoped that the same will be repeated this year.

In a battle of youth versus experience, the two contestants are of quite different types as is indicated by their respective positions in their clubs' League teams. The Portuguese player is of the steady drawing type, and deadly in the placing of his woods. His English opponent is, on the contrary, of the more spectacular type: he draws a good shot with the added ability to produce a dramatic effort at the right time, and is solid in his building of a head.

ELUDED HIM

Luz is making his first appearance in the Final, whilst his opponent reached that stage in 1935, when he narrowly succumbed after a great fight to R. Duncan. He has also reached the semi-final on several occasions, but the title has so far always eluded him.

The records of the two players which are printed serve as little guide in selecting the ultimate winner.

STONIER PATH

If anything, perhaps J. A. Luz has had the more difficult task and he overcame some good men on his way to the Final, his best achievement being perhaps against J. V. Ramsay, who had eliminated E. C. Fincher in the previous round.

On the other hand the Craigen-gower player's form against A. R. Dallah, conqueror of Dick Basa and John Watson, in the Semi-final round, was very impressive. One thing is certain, a good game will be featured.

HOW THEY REACHED THE FINAL

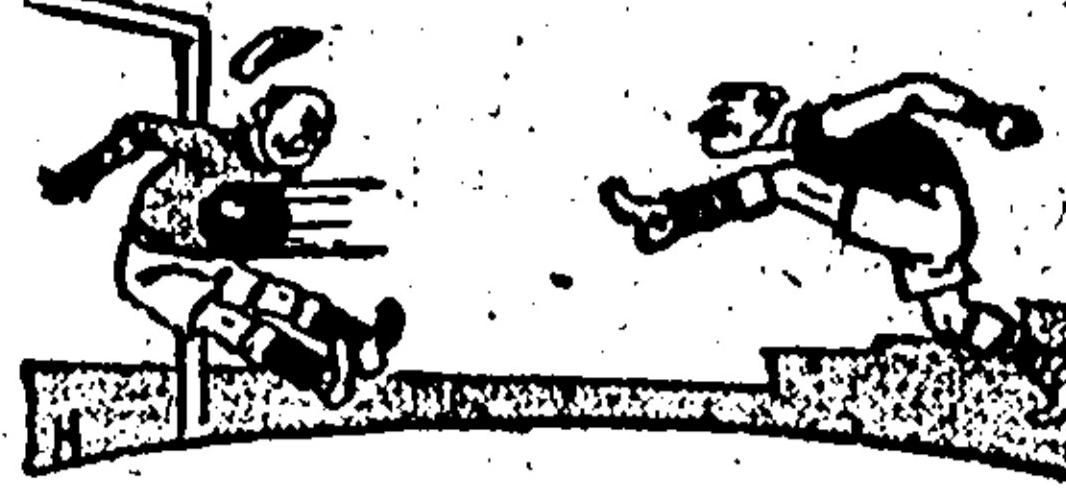

The records of to-day's finalists in this year's event are as follows:

B. W. BRADBURY
1st Round beat A. J. Coelho	21/5
2nd Round beat W. J. Bagley	21/7
3rd Round beat D. W. Waterton	21/19
4th Round beat J. C. Brown	21/19
Quarter Final beat A. Hyde Lay	21/15
Semi-Final beat A. R. Dallah	21/14

J. A. DA LUZ
1st Round beat L. D. Skinner	21/12
2nd Round beat F. X. M. da Silva	21/20
3rd Round beat A. K. Minu	21/19
4th Round beat H. A. Alves	21/18
Quarter Final beat W. Gill	21/15
Semi-Final beat J. V. Ramsay	21/18

Local Rugby Season Starts To-morrow

Prospects For Season Are Very Good

The Rugby Football Season will commence to-morrow, when the Hong Kong Football Club will hold its first trial game on the Club ground, at Happy Valley, commencing at 5.15 p.m. sharp. Further trial games will be held on Wednesday, October 5 and Wednesday, October 12 on the same ground and at the same time.

All Club members turning up for these games will be certain of receiving a trial. Intending players should bring both a white and a coloured jersey.

The season proper will commence on Saturday, October 15, when the Club 1st XV will play the Army and the Club "A" side will play a Navy XV.

Prospects for this season are good and with the probable appearance of three visiting sides in Hong Kong, some interesting Rugger should be seen. The first visiting side will be an Army XV from Singapore, who are travelling by a trooper and will arrive in the Colony on October 30, and will leave on the November 5. During that time it is hoped that they will play three games. That against the Club will take place on the Club ground on Wednesday, November 2, commencing at 4.45 p.m.

MALAYAN VISIT

The last visiting Army side from Singapore arrived in the Colony just out of season, and the games played were consequently rather disappointing. This year we are promised a strong side which will provide a hard test for the local Army, Navy and Club teams early in the season.

Arrangements are going forward for the visit of a Malayan Union Rugby XV early in February. The Malayan Rugby Union finish their season in the Straits with the annual North v. South match, which this year will be held in Singapore on the January 29. The best exponents of the art of Rugger in Malaya are then in action.

Officials of the Union thought that this opportunity should be taken to send a strong side from amongst the players in the North v. South game to Hong Kong for a series of matches with local teams and the proposal has been warmly welcomed in the Colony.

THREE MATCHES

If present tentative arrangements are confirmed, the side will arrive on February 2, and leave on the 12th, during which time they will play matches against the Club, Navy and possibly all Hong Kong. This will probably be the best Rugger seen here since the visit of the New Zealand Universities side in 1936.

These visitors will be closely followed, it is hoped, by the Shanghai Rugby Union Football Club's Interport side. Last year, owing to conditions in North China, the annual Interport had to be cancelled. This year, with the improvement in the North, this step should not be necessary, and the Hong Kong Football Club hope to entertain Shanghai for the usual series of matches during the China New Year.

An enjoyable season is in prospect, which it is hoped will not be spoilt by untoward international events.

BLACKHEATH'S NARROW WIN

London, To-day. Two friendly Rugby matches were held yesterday. Blackheath beating Devonport Services by the narrow margin of 12 points to 11. Pontypool trounced Newport.

HAMMOND AGAIN HEADS BATTING LIST

GLAMORGAN BOWLER'S DISTINCTION

(By AIR MAIL)

London, September 14.

THE first-class cricket programme for this season ended yesterday, when an England XI, under the title of H. D. G. Leveson-Gower's XI, defeated the Australians at Scarborough.

For the fourth successive year, W. R. Hammond heads the English batting. His average shows an increase of 10.23 runs an innings compared with 1937, but his aggregate failed by 241 to come up to his 3252 of last summer.

Matthews, of Glamorgan, who made few appearances owing to his coaching duties at Stowe, and injuries, tops the bowlers, but the chief feature of the figure is the number of Yorkshiremen who appear among the leaders.

Wooderson's Fast Time At Oslo

1500 Metres Race Won In 3 Mins. 48.7 Secs.

(By AIR MAIL)

Oslo, September 15.
S. C. Wooderson, holder of the 800 metres and mile world records, scored yet another success here this evening at the opening of the three-day international athletic meeting, when he won the 1,500 metres event by 15 yards from his Belgian rival J. Mostert. C. A. J. Emery (Achilles) finished third.

Wooderson, whose time was 3 mins. 48.7 secs., came very near to beating Jack Lovelock's world record of 3 mins. 47.8 secs. Mostert's time was 3 mins. 50 secs., and Emery's 3 mins. 53.3 secs.

In the 400 metres final A. G. K. Brown ran a glorious race, although starting badly, to win comfortably in 46.9 secs. from A. Tamisto (Finland), whose time was Scottish.

48.5 secs.

CAME SECOND

A. Pennington (Oxford University) qualified for the 100 metres final by finishing second in his heat to Mr. Osendarp (Holland). Pennington's time was 10.8 and Osendarp's 10.6.

In the 400 metres heat A. J. Collyer (Watford Harriers) was beaten into second place by S. Bouman (Holland), who took 49.7 secs. Collyer's time was 50.1 secs.

FYFE FOR LONDON SCOTTISH

K. C. Fyfe, the Scotland and Cambridge University three-quarter back, who will be in England on leave from India during the coming season, will play for London Scotts (Finland), whose time was Scottish.

GALA WIN KELSO RUGBY SEVEN-A-SIDES

T. F. DORWARD AND R. W. BARRIE SHOW FINE FORM

(By AIR MAIL)

Glasgow, September 13.

By winning the seven-a-side tournament promoted by the Kelso club at Poynder Park—the second of three tournaments which precede the Rugby season proper in Scotland—Gala showed that their victory at Earlston the previous week was no mere flash of form. At Kelso they were undoubtedly the best seven on view, and the mere fact that they scored 59 points in their three ties is an adequate indication of their scoring strength.

At Kelso, of course, their seven was strengthened considerably by the inclusion of their internationalist scrum half-back and captain, T. F. Dorward, and J. Dun, and these two were outstanding throughout.

In the final against Hawick, Dorward was at his cleverest and he made opening after opening. Dun showed a pace and thrust in his running which made one think that, fine full back though he is—he played in the final trial last year—a great deal of his talent is wasted as a last-line defender.

J. Caskey, the youthful Edinburgh Academical, who created such a good impression in Gala's winning seven at Earlston, was not quite so prominent, but he did a lot of useful things, and there was no better man in the side when it came to defence.

TWO CASUALTIES

Gala's forward trio gave them a good share of the ball from the scrums—although they were held by Hawick in the final—and it was noteworthy that both they and "the Terries" had to bring in substitutes. J. Gray came into the Gala pack in place of J. Denham, who sustained concussion in the second round, and T. Elliot had to don Hawick's green jersey when G. Brown wrenched a knee against Kelso.

Special mention must be made of the performance of W. Y. Aitken, Gala's hefty scrummager, who wicked ten goals in thirteen attempts. Many of them were from awkward angles, and the fact stands as one of the best of its kind at a seven-a-side tournament.

R. W. BARRIE SHINES

Hawick, with R. W. Barrie giving them a splendid lead, made a brave show, and beat Kelso in a stirring second round tie, but they had had an extra game to play, and seemed a bit leg-weary in the final. Barrie, making his first appearance on the field since an operation 18 months ago, was about the best forward on view.

A feature of the other ties was the defeat of Melrose, last year's winners, by Langholm, who arrived late as a result of a car breakdown. The lively Langholm men knocked Melrose out of their stride, and hung on to a slender lead to the end. Edinburgh City Police, with their forwards unable to obtain the ball in the scrums, went out rather tamely to Kelso.

In a very one-sided final, Dun had four tries for Gala and J. B. Lees one try, and Aitken converted on three occasions. T. Fraser had two tries for Hawick and J. Broomfield one try.

"The Slow Motion St. Leger"

SCOTTISH UNION JUSTIFIED ALL ITS EXPECTATIONS CHALLENGE WAS 'DREAM TIP'

(By AIR MAIL)

Doncaster, September 7.

Mr. James Rank's Scottish Union confirmed Derby form with non-staying favourite Pasch in a classic race fittingly described by the jockeys as the "slow motion St. Leger." Time of 3 mins, 11 3-5 secs. was not the slowest on record, but undoubtedly the worst ever taken under existing Doncaster conditions.

Separating Scottish Union and Pasch was the "dream tip" Challenge, and a little bunch of friends were—Max Barthropp told me—beginning to count thousands when Challenge slung out his challenge in the last furlong and drew practically level.

Jack Jarvis thought it might have been ever closer if Challenge had not seemed slightly checked once, but E. Smith would not suggest an excuse, and the genius of Carslake prevailed by a neck.

GIVEN A BREATHIER
"I gave the winner a slight breather a hundred yards from home, and it just did the trick," said the modest "Brownie."

Four lengths away Pasch, on a wide outside, just managed to get a neck in front of the extreme 40-1 outsider Magic Circle and secure third place. And we had seen the fillies Rockwell and Solar Flower put Magic Circle well into a very minor class at Hurst Park.

Another Leger has therefore been a law unto itself, and if there was one of the nine runners you would not have backed on paddock inspection it would have been the 7-1 winner. Maybe he was brighter than on Eclipse day, but he did not look in earlier bloom.

FIRST CLASSIC WIN

Noel Cannon also shared in his first classic winner, and his prophecy to me—after the running-up to Pasch in the "Two Thousand"—of "It'll be No. 1 next" has eventually materialised.

He also assured me after to-day's Doncaster race that Scottish Union had really pleased them, and their opinion was backed after Saturday's gallop, but "who could say after the Eclipse that Pasch would be beaten?"

NO EXCUSE

Any excuse for Pasch? None really. More rain and softer ground, longest distance he had tackled—all conspired to show his limitations and disappoint owner, trainer, and rider—plus thousands of losing backers. He behaved perfectly as a lad rode and did not lead him round in the parade ring. No fireworks to-day, but he showed on the way to the start near the paddock that he could pull Gordon Richards' arms hard and was eager to get at it.

A very quiet Gordon could only say to me when it was all over "The pace was so slow that I could never get him to settle down, as I had hoped." Pasch was soon pulled back last in an endeavour to restrain him, and did not begin to move up until they were making for that long straight run home. Otherwise the man on top would make no excuse.

MADE NO PROGRESS

"Surely such a slow race was run just to suit Pasch and my mount, Ramtapa," Beary added, and Michael made it clear to me that Ramtapa made no progress when asked to do so.

Only out-paced Foroughi finished behind the Manton springer. Bobby Jones and Harry Wragg would naturally have liked a real gallop. Pound Foolish never flattered when speed was turned on a bit. Beanley, however, did not blame the lack of speed for Glen Loan, who was only two lengths behind the leading three a quarter-of-a-mile from home, and seemed likely then to come through on the rails.

Smite the gods, but I wonder about the 40-1 outsiders in today's a slow St Leger, but dared not go ahead on La-Li with her unproved stamina."

MIXED EXPERIENCES

Carslake, who had warmed up a wee bit more than usual, could afford not to "blame the pace." Brownie has had some mixed experiences in his three last classic wins—all the way on Keysoe and a dramatically-late challenge on Salmon Trout, and now tracking Magic Circle until they were 150 yards into the straight. He was wisely told to ride his own race—lead if necessary. Actually he did so for a furlong or so, whereas Pound Foolish was a bit sideways and fast from the barrier, but Carslake let Magic Circle go on and was able, as he said, to be "perfectly balanced throughout" and to get just the sort of leader he wanted. So all came off.

Pasch was on the outside when he moved up, racing on the outside of the winner and Challenge, and though it may be argued he would have won at a mile-and-a-quarter. I never felt that he had that winning kick which pulverised them all on that firm Sandown turf on Eclipse Day.

DREW NEAREA

As he drew bit nearer now, I could see Gordon was getting anxious. It did not take us long to realize that Pasch could not produce the essential final dash.

It was made so doubly clear by Pasch and Ramtapa that classic races are not won on home trial grounds.

Fortunately, Challenge was on the spot as they came past the stands to make a fight of it. I have told how he flattered and he did stick on gallantly. It remained undecided while partisans shouted for both as the post drew nearer and nearer. Then it was all over, and the oldest of our jockeys—Carslake is 58—had just done it on a good lad about 30 years his junior.

COST 8,000 GUINEAS

Mr. Rank met his winner in the unsaddling enclosure, but Mrs. Rank joyfully followed their trainer as Scottish Union was led in. "I'm glad most of all for Noel Cannon's sake and I want to keep my horse in training as a four year-old," Mr. Rank told me. The Sledmerebred winner cost 8,000 guineas at Harlaxton sales here, and a half-brother by Bahram comes up for sale here to-morrow.

The wealthy miller has deserved the reward for the big money he pays and Epigram and Scottish Union have made it his best and first classic season. He is glad now he decided to have Scottish Union trained for the St. Leger—it was much in doubt until the colt began to pick up after his two weeks' complete rest following Sandown, and he fully revengeed his sire, Cameronian, on the Tawa Moon. He will probably miss Chester Stakes and twice for the autumn races, but he can still be useful.

Reconstruction Of St. Andrews

The Jubilee course at St. Andrews is to be reconstructed at the end of the season.

St. Andrews Town Council have decided to proceed with the alterations on the understanding that the ground be cleared gradually and in such a way as to ensure that, if considered advisable later, the reconstruction work will be available for a super championship course.

Welsh Rugby Clubs Hit By S. Africa Tour

ABERAVON MAY BE SIDE OF SEASON

(By ROWE HARDING)

London, August 30.

A LONG list of illustrious players will, from one cause or another, be missing—temporarily or permanently—from the ranks of the first-class Welsh Rugby clubs when the season opens this weekend.

For this, the tour of the British team in South Africa is mainly responsible. In that side there are eight Welshmen, and all of them, except Vivian Jenkins, play their Rugby in Wales.

True, they are expected back by the middle of October, but I imagine that few of them will want to plunge into the hurly-burly at once, and personally I think they will be very unwise if they do.

I do not want it to be thought that we in Wales regret the inclusion of these Welshmen in the British team. We are all proud that they were selected, that they have played so well; and that the whole team has so worthily upheld the good name of British Rugby.

SWANSEA BADLY HIT

The fact remains that the absence of Clement and E. L. W. Jones (Llanelli), Tanner and E. Morgan (Swansea), Travers (Newport), Taylor (Cross Keys) and Ivor Williams (Cardiff) will handicap these clubs seriously in the early months of the season.

HOCKEY HON. SECRETARIES REMINDED OF CLOSING DATE

The closing date for entries to the Hong Kong Hockey Association Tournament is Friday, September 30. Secretaries of Army, Navy and Civilian clubs are reminded that if desirous of joining this tournament they should send their entries in to Mr. D. Smith, c/o Harbour Office.

The tournament is open to all clubs affiliated to the Association.

AUSTRALIAN SUB. GRIFFIN BOUGHT FOR $550

The price of $550 was paid by Mr. S. T. Williamson for 1939 Australian subscription pony No. 21, when it was sold by public auction in the Jockey Club paddock yesterday. The pony, which is eligible for racing in 1939, is a five-year old chestnut gelding, 14 hands two inches, and sired by Conban.

Another Australian pony, No. 21, was also offered for sale, but had to be withdrawn because there were no bidders. The pony was not entitled to race at any meeting of the Jockey Club as it was not in the draw.

PRACTICE HOCKEY MATCH

The Hong Kong Hockey Club have arranged a practice match at King's Park to-morrow at 5 p.m. Members are requested to attend in white or coloured jerseys.

What's On At the Cinemas

AT THE ALHAMBRA—"Undersea Kingdom", with Ray "Crash" Corrigan, Farnum, Lon Chaney, Jr., Jack Mullhall, Lee Van Atta, and Lois Wilde. Ancient chariots, catapults, battering rams, legions of swordsmen, and cavalry lancers, battle with strange mechanical men armed with atom-guns, rocket-propelled vol-planes Juggernauts, projector-machines, and television spy detectors for possession of Atlantis, fabled lost city under the sea, all prominent in this thrilling action picture.

AT THE QUEEN'S—"Gold Diggers In Paris". When Hugh Herbert books a New York cabaret show for the Paris Exposition instead of the August and stately Academy Ballet he was sent to secure it starts the funniest and most melodious of all the Gold-Digger series. The huge cast includes Rudy Vallee, Rosemary Lane, Hugh Herbert, Allen Jenkins, Gloria Dickson, Melville Cooper, Mabel Tude, Fritz Leibod, Ed Brophy, Victor Kullberg, 33 Gold-Digger Girls, and the hilarious Schniekel-Fritz Band.

AT THE ORIENTAL—"Dracula". A terrifying thriller dealing with vampires who are "half-dead", wolves who howl in the night, wild rides through the mist in driveless carriages, insane men, and red mist which sweep over lawns just before dawn. With Bela Lugosi, Helen Chandler, David Manners and Dwight Frye.

AT THE KING'S—"Blockade", with Madeline Carroll and Henry Fonda. The most dramatic situation of the present day—the Spanish civil war forms the background of the tempestuous love story. This is the romance of a man and a girl drawn into the conflict almost against the will-lovers who were at the same time bitter enemies.

* * *

AT THE STAR—"We Who Are About To Die."—A stark drama of a prison Death Row, with an innocent man framed for execution. Preston Foster, Ann Dvorak, John Beal and J. Carroll Naish in the leading roles.

AT THE MAJESTIC—"Navy, Blue And Gold".—Two midshipmen and a girl provide the romantic complications in this thrilling story of life at Annapolis. Florence Rice is the girl. Robert Young and James Stewart are the midshipmen, and the fight is on! Also featured in the cast are Lionel Barrymore, Billie Burke and Tom Brown.

RESOLUTE AND UNFLINCHING

Berlin, To-day.
As the Fuehrer left the speaker's stand at the Sportspalast amidst the frantic cheering of the huge audience: Dr. Goebbels again went before the microphones to declare that the German nation would follow to the last man wherever the Fuehrer led them.

"Never again," he said, "will November 9, 1918 be repeated, and anyone who anticipates this is doomed to disappointment. The German people will march to battle resolute and unflinching when you command it and will defend the life and honour of the nation to the last breath. This is our promise, so help us God."

The meeting closed with a cheer for victory.—Trans-Ocean.

U.S. CRITICISM RESENTED

MILITARY CENSORSHIP IN PRAGUE

Prague, To-day.

A strict military censorship has been imposed in Prague, and many foreign correspondents have left the capital for Hungary and Poland.

In Prague, reports Reuter's correspondent in a telephone message from Hungary, hundreds of reservists were pouring into the city daily.

Gas masks had been distributed for the inhabitants before his departure, while trenches had been dug as air raid shelters, and blackouts and night tests of air defences made.

People in the city he described as being in a grim and resolute mood, and both civilians and the army seemed unwilling to make further concessions.

All women in Prague between the ages of 17 and 60 it is understood have been told that they are liable for compulsory labour services. —Reuter.

American press in its treatment of European problems in general and of the Czech problem in particular has published tendentious reports accompanied by spiteful comments with the object of influencing public opinion.—Trans-Ocean.
